

Starke Tooling are the tool design and manufacturing division within the Starke Advanced Manufacturing Group of Companies.

We offer tool design, project management and manufacturing of injection mold, die-casting and hot and cold stamping tools as well production parts supply. We provide manufacturing solutions using our Australian and USA based toolmaking assets as well as our Low-Cost Country validated vendor base.

CAPABILITIES

- Australian and USA local tool manufacture
- Low Cost Country (LCC) and LCC Hybrid manufacturing solutions
- Tool design & engineering services
- Prototype, 3D printed and "soft" tools
- Precision, multi-cavity, low and high volume production tools
- Tool try-out, tuning, servicing and whole-project-life management
- Conformal cooling insert solutions (reducing tool cycle times & part costs)

KEY MARKETS

- Defence
- Aerospace
- Marine
- Mining
- MedTech
- AgTech
- Automotive
- Industrial Assembly

QUALITY CERTIFICATION

- ISO9001:2015

SOME OF OUR CUSTOMERS

DISCRIMINATORS

- Australia (South Australia) and USA (Michigan) established companies.
- Experienced Design and Project Management Teams in Australia, USA and NZ
- Established in 1994, with a proven track record of project delivery
- Experience with multiple industries, including Defence, Automotive and MedTech
- 100% local tool design and manufacture where sovereign risk demands it
- Validated Low Cost Country (LCC) vendor base, including Thailand, Taiwan, China, Indonesia and Malaysia.
- Low Cost Country (LCC) hybrid solutions with tool finishing & maturation occurring where the customer requires it.
- Technology transfer agreements with cutting edge technology providers, including 3D printed Conformal Cooling inserts

